

ALTERNATIVE
ISOLATION
ACCOMMODATION

Alternative Isolation Accommodation Outside Of Home Community For Indigenous Patients Needing To Isolate

WHO?

Non-treaty resident of a First Nation transported to receive medical care and who is required to self-isolate before returning to home community due to local travel restrictions.

First Nations person who traveled away from home community for non-medical reasons and was then advised of the need to self-isolate. Person is not receiving support from Indigenous Services Canada, Non-Insured Health Benefits.

* Note: Does not include people who tested positive for COVID-19 and their close contacts. See Alternative Isolation Accommodation for COVID Positive Info Sheet.

WHAT?

Requires accommodation, meals and support for self-isolation outside of home community for 14 days as do not have an acceptable location to self-isolate. If home care support is required, this can be arranged.

SUPPORT

Prior to being discharged or when medical care is finished, talk to the social worker or nurse about Alternative Isolation Accommodation for self-isolation.

 If you were out of your community for non-medical reasons (e.g. work-related travel, meetings, vacation) when the community went into lock-down, contact your community leadership and/or health director to confirm what you should do to self-isolate prior to returning home.

* Indigenous Health can assist you with accessing services.

Available seven days a week from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Call 204-940-8880 or 1-877-940-8880